| Calibrations of Level of Consciousness depend on what the testor holds in mind | yes | 1,000 |
| It would be unusual for two people to calibrate anything the same unless their understanding of the terms involved are identical or nearly identical | yes | 1,000 |
| An individual should attempt to bring their understanding and calibrations in line with that of Dr Hawkins | no | |
| An individual should attempt to understand the nature of the differences between their own calibrations and the calibrations of another who could hold a slightly different concept in mind and receive a different calibraion | yes | 1,000 |
| There are higher level frequencies flowing through the bodies of a few individuals, who act as conduits, of which they are unaware | yes | 25,000 |
| There is a difference between these higher level frequencies and the innate Level of Consciousness of the body | yes | 25,000 |
| These higher level frequencies directly affect the body of the individual acting as a conduit | no | |
| These higher level frequencies indirectly affect the body of the individual acting as a conduit | yes | 25,000 |
| It places the body under higher stress levels | yes | 25,000 |
| These higher level frequencies indirectly affect the body of the individual acting as a conduit in other ways | no | |
